Begam on the 16th November 1911 leaving her and her children in distressed circumstances & further she stated that she was entirely depending on the pension of her late mother (Zahara Begam) and prays for the continuance of the pension on account of her shattered circumstances. (4-5-0)

4). Though the pension sanctioned to late Zahara Begam was for life, yet it has been the practice to continue these small pensions either in full or in part to the surviving heirs for the maintenance of the family, after ascertaining the circumstances in life of the heirs of the deceased pensioners.

5). In his report dated 9-9-1909 on the condition in life of Zahara Begam (now deceased) the Collector of North Arcot had stated that the eldest daughter is in good circumstances & the younger daughter (present petitioner) & her husband are in indigent circumstances and they were maintained by the deceased's husband & he therefor recommended that the pension enjoyed by late Mohideen Hussain may be continued to his widow Zahara Begam (now deceased) for her maintenance & for the support of her younger daughter (present petitioner).

6). Submitted for orders, as to whether a fresh report may be called for from the Collector of North Arcot (thro the Residency) on the condition in life of the present petitioner.

To

The Muzrai Secretary, to the Government of Mysore,

M Y S O R E.

Most Respected Sir,

I humbly beg to represent that I am the younger daughter of Zahara Begum, a Mysore State pen-sioner, drawing a monthly pension of Rs.4-5-0 under Pro-ceedings of Mysore Government No.3055 dated 29-12-1909.

My elder sister having been given in marriage to a rich and opulent Mysore State Pensioner re-siding in Madras, she has neither a claim, nor she has come to claim in the enjoyment of her mother's pension.

My mother died of Apoplexy on 16-11-11 and left me and my helpless children all under 12 years of age to bemoan her loss and in distressed circumstances of unforeseen misfortunes.

I have neither a house to live in nor money to build one. At present I am put up in a thatched house given up to the exposure of the sun and rain.

My husband has no occupation of any kind nor any source of income. He depended entirely up-on the pension of my deceased mother.

The pension enjoyed by my mother is continuable for on the death of a collateral pensioner - named Hyath Bi her pension was conferred on her mother Fathima Begum but the latter died in Bombay before she - came here and drew her pension. Hence it is evident - that the pension is continuable.

I, therefore, pray your Honour will be pleased to hold a local enquiry and if what has been stated be proved then to accord sanction for the continu -ance of the same in my name.

For which act of kindness I shall feel ever grateful.

I beg to remain,

Most Respected Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Vellore,
12th January 1912.

Letter No. Dis 53/R.R.B., dated the 27th July 1912, from the Collector of North Arcot to the First Assistant to the Resident in Mysore.

With reference to your letter No. 901, dated 12th February 1912, requesting information as to the circumstances in life of Rahimunissa Begam, daughter of the deceased Mysore State Pensioner Jahira Begam, I have the honour to report that the deceased is reported to have left two daughters both of whom are married. The eldest Kathiya Begam is married to Mahamad Kalimulla Sahib of Madras who is said to be in receipt of a monthly pension of Rs. 16-4-0 from the Mysore State and to carry on trade in Madras. She has not responded to any of the four notices issued to her for enquiry as to her claims, if any, to the pension of her deceased mother. The younger one, Rahimunissa Begam, the petitioner, has three daughters and two sons, all said to be minors under twelve years of age. Her husband also is not reported to be in good circumstances.

The records of enquiry and the copy of the petition received with your letter under reply are herewith enclosed.
